Advanced Concealed Compartment Course

Date: Feb 2-3, 2016

Time: 8:00 am – 4:00 pm

Location: Waterbury Police Training Center, 240 Bank Street Waterbury, Ct

THERE IS A FEE OF $ 199.00 PER STUDENT.

Description: The City of Waterbury will be hosting a Two Day Advanced Concealed Compartment Course being presented by Palestra Group International. This advanced course is comprised of lecture based learning and practical application covering both vehicle concealed compartments and residential concealed compartments. This course has been designed to provide the attendee with the tools to recognize, identify and subsequently interdict the criminal transportation and concealment of illicit narcotics, illegal firearms and the proceeds of crime. The course reveals the tactics, methodology and the practices used by narcotics traffickers to conceal contraband and dissuade officers from furthering an investigation at the advanced level.

Through the use of classroom instruction, group discussion and practical application during vehicle searches the attendee will be instructed in proven techniques used to successfully interdict the transportation of contraband over the interstate as well local highways and by-ways. This is achieved by providing the basics needed to advance a vehicle and traffic stop into an interdiction investigation. Through the guidance and assistance of the instructors, the attendee will be tasked with several exercises intended to reinforce the training material through actual demonstration and a “hands on” vehicle searches.
